

Writing 1.0

I can write clear and coherent paragraphs that develop a central idea.

Writing 1.1

I can group related ideas and maintain a consistent focus.

They can dive into a pond and swim in the water.

Frogs can hop on land.

A frog can move in different ways.

Certainly, I wish I could move as well as a frog!

They can leap for food

First, you can go on many thrilling rides.

Finally, you can watch a great parade before you go back home.

Disneyland is an exciting place to visit.

Second, you can eat all kinds of good food like frozen bananas and churros.

As you can see, Disneyland is the greatest place on Earth.

They build a special home called a lodge.

Beavers are excellent builders.

To build the lodge, they use their sharp teeth to cut down small trees and branches.

Obviously, beavers are experts at lodge building.

Then they stack the wood into a big pile to make their den.

Next, some dinosaurs were big and others were small.

First, they lived a long time ago.

Dinosaurs were interesting animals.

Definitely, dinosaurs are fascinating to learn about.

Last, they are extinct, which means they are no longer living.

You get to play with your friends on a team and get lots of exercise.

It's fun to make a goal.

You can also try to hit the ball with your head.

Soccer is fun to play.

For the reasons above, I think soccer is a fabulous sport!

They find food for the hungry babies and bring it back to the nest.

In conclusion, a mother bird has a busy job!

Mother birds sit on the eggs until they hatch.

They also protect the baby birds from any harm.

Birds are good mothers.

Name _____

Directions: Cut out the sentences and put them in the correct order to make a paragraph.

Main Idea:

Details:

Conclusion:

